

Test your knowledge!

Education Law in Pennsylvania True / False?

1. Students without proper immigration papers are considered non-residents and, therefore, do not have the right to attend school.
2. School districts can wait to receive a student's IEP (Individualized Education Program) before enrolling the student.
3. A 19-year-old student who previously dropped out of school or earned a GED can reenroll.
4. To be eligible for special education, students must need to spend some time each day in a separate class.
5. Students with disabilities can be suspended and expelled like any other student.